Q-Parts24 is a online trading company in the car parts buisness. We offer our customers car parts and accessories in opur online shop and sales channels.

You bring with you:

- You are interested in our products
- You enjoy planning, implementing and evaluating projects
- You are interested in commercial and information technology processes
- You have good PC knowledge
- Online sales and advertising channels are no stranger to you
- You are characterized by sociability, communications skills, initiative, resilience

Your tasks:

- You participate in the assessment, selection and use of the sales channels in e-commerce
- You support the conception, online management and further development of product or service ranges for the area of e-commerce
- You are involved in the preparation and implementation of online marketing measures
- You use key figure-based instruments for commercial control in e-commerce
- You participiate in projects and their purposeful implamentation

We offer:

- Practical training in our customer and sales-oriented business areas with a focus on online sales channels and online shops
- Free drinks and fruits
- Canteen with 50% coverage
- Good takeover opportunities

Interested? Then start your career with a trainee e-commerce (m/f/d) ! Please sent us your application in digital form by email to:

Q-Parts24 GmbH & Co. KG
Michael Riedel
E-Mail: bewerbung@qp24.de